Please use provided hand sanitizer and wait here until greeted by your Yale host

Stay at least six feet (about two arms’ length) from others.

Since people can spread the virus before they know they are sick, it is important to stay away from others when possible, even if you—or they—have no symptoms.